ON THE CUTTING EDGE OF PHILIPPINE SCHOLARSHIP

As the nations of the Pacific Rim begin to exercise an ever increasing role in world affairs in the last decade of the twentieth century, Philippine Studies continues to create an impact on Philippine scholars in the Philippines and abroad. For over forty years Philippine Studies has continued to publish seminal articles, notes and reviews in the Humanities, Literature, History, Social Sciences, Philosophy and Philippine Arts, which have been cited and reprinted in more specialized journals. With each issue, Philippine Studies reviews past scholarship and ventures into new areas of research.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO Philippine Studies are welcome—Articles, Notes, Reviews. Send two copies of all manuscripts (and/or diskettes if possible) to:
