CONTRIBUTORS

REV. FRANCIS X. CLARK, S.J. is Rector of Berchmans College, Cebu City. He has already written several well-received studies on mission problems. One of these, The Philippine Missions, was a Mission Academia publication.

REV. JOHN N. SCHUMACHER, S.J. has just completed three years teaching at San Jose Seminary, Quezon City. His interest in Rizaliana dates from his Master's thesis in which he made a study of the Rizal-Blumentritt correspondence. By the time his article comes off the press, he will be in the United States for theological studies.

REV. THOMAS A. MITCHELL, S.J. is a member of the Ateneo de Manila Graduate School staff. He made his studies in social work at Fordham University. He is president of The Philippine Association of Social Workers and acting chairman of Archdiocesan Catholic Charities.

REV. MIGUEL A. BERNAD, S.J. is professor of literature at the Ateneo de Manila Graduate School and at the College of Liberal Arts. His articles have frequently appeared in these pages.

REV. CHARLES E. DEPPERMANN, S.J. is Director of the Manila Observatory and an internationally known authority on Philippine weather.
