CONTRIBUTORS

SISTER MARIA CARMEN is a member of the Congregation of the Assumption and is professor of Philippine History at Assumption College, Manila.

CONCHITA GONZALEZ-VIRATA (Mrs. Melquiades Virata) is a lawyer holding an LL.B. from Santo Tomas University. Though she is the mother of seven children she manages to find time to write for The Cross and to work for her master's degree in law. Of late she has added open air anti-Communist stumping to her activities.

REV. FLORENT JOSEPH SALS is a member of the Congregation of the Immaculate Heart of Mary and is now engaged in work among the Ifugaos at Kiangnan. His article continues a long tradition of scientific work by the C. I. C. M. fathers of the Mountain Province.

REV. GERALD W. HEALY, S.J. is professor of Moral Theology at San Jose Seminary and will be remembered for his fine article on "The Modern Voter and Morality" which appeared in the September issue last year. Father Healy is a Doctor in Theology from the Gregorian University.

REV. HORACIO DE LA COSTA, S.J. is Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at the Ateneo de Manila. Father de la Costa holds a Doctorate in History from Harvard University and is widely known for his articles on the history of the Philippines.

REV. MIGUEL A. BERNAD, S.J. is well-known to readers of this quarterly for his articles on literature. Father Bernad has lately joined the staff of PHILIPPINE STUDIES as associate editor.
