CONTRIBUTORS AND REVIEWERS

REV. MIGUEL A. BERNAD, S.J., is Dean of Studies at Novaliches and Lecturer in English Literature at the Ateneo de Manila. Readers of PHILIPPINE STUDIES will remember him as the author of several excellent articles and reviews on literary topics.

REV. DANIEL CLIFFORD, S.J., professor of philosophy in Chabanel Hall writes from the wealth of 12 years' experience in China.

REV. HORACIO DE LA COSTA, S.J., Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, Ateneo de Manila, is associate editor. His articles on historical subjects are widely known.

MAJOR JOSE M. CRISOL was formerly head of the Civil Affairs Office of the Department of National Defense and of Psychological Warfare. He resigned from the army to support the campaign of his former chief, the President-Elect, Ramon Magsaysay.

DR. VICTORINO DE LA FUENTE is a professor of medical ethics at Santo Tomas University. He holds his A.B. from the Ateneo de Manila, and is that rather rare combination, a philosopher-physician.

REV. RALPH B. GEHRING, S.J., Doctor of Philosophy from Louvain is now lecturing in philosophy at San Jose Seminary, Quezon City.

REV. GERALD W. HEALY, S.J., attracted great interest during the recent electoral campaign by his various writings on the obligations of citizens. He is professor of Moral Theology at San Jose Seminary, Quezon City.

REV. JOSEPH J. KAVANAGH, S.J., is Professor of Sacred Scripture at San Jose Seminary, Quezon City.

THOMAS R. MCHALE is candidate for a Ph.D. in economics at Harvard University. He was in Manila recently on a U.S. travel grant and taught in the Graduate School of the Ateneo de Manila, 1952-1953.

REV. JAMES J. MEANY, S.J. is associate editor of PHILIPPINE STUDIES. He is S.T.D. from the Gregorian University and is now teaching Theology at San Jose Seminary, Quezon City.

REV. FRANCIS M. O'BYRNE, S.J. is a recent arrival in the Philippines. His journey took him through Japan and what he saw there prompted his brief contribution. Father O'Byrne is professor of classical languages at Novaliches.
