

philippine studies

Ateneo de Manila University • Loyola Heights, Quezon City • 1108 Philippines

Contributors

Contributors to Volume 46 Number 4 1998

Philippine Studies vol. 46, no. 4 (1998): 534

Copyright © Ateneo de Manila University

Philippine Studies is published by the Ateneo de Manila University. Contents may not be copied or sent via email or other means to multiple sites and posted to a listserv without the copyright holder's written permission. Users may download and print articles for individual, noncommercial use only. However, unless prior permission has been obtained, you may not download an entire issue of a journal, or download multiple copies of articles.

Please contact the publisher for any further use of this work at philstudies@admu.edu.ph.

<http://www.philippinestudies.net>
Fri June 27 13:30:20 2008

Contributors

TERESITA ANG SEE is the founding president of Kaisa Para sa Kaunlaran, Inc., an organization of young Chinese Filipinos actively promoting the integration of the Chinese community. She is editor-in-chief of Tulay.

LEONARD CASPER, emeritus English professor at Boston College, teaches courses in crosscultural contemporary American and Philippine literature.

RENE ESCALANTE is a Ph.D. History candidate at University of the Philippines. He took his A.B. and M.A. Philosophy at St. Camilus College Seminary and Ateneo de Manila University. He is writing his dissertation on the settlement of the friar lands during the American period.

JOSELITO N. FORNIER is assistant professor in the History Department, Ateneo de Manila University. He holds his Ph.D. in History from Northern Illinois University.

GHISLAINE LOYRE is affiliated with Institute for Research on South-East Asia-Centre National de la Recherche Scientifique (IRSEA-CNRS) in Paris. She translated into English her book A La Recherche de l'Islam Philippine: La Communaute Maranao.

ABDULLAH T. MADALE was vice president of Mindanao State University, Marawi City. He is working with Nagasura Madale on the Maranaw Literature for publication by Ateneo de Manila University Press.

NIELS MULDER is an independent anthropologist interested in the cultural dynamics of modern Southeast Asia. His books include Inside Indonesian Society (1996) and Inside Philippine Society (1997).